

Editing Practice

Correct any errors you find. Make 3 or more recommendations for effective presentation.

Fore young people who enjoy travel but find it to expensive, heres a possible solution employment on a Cruise Ship. Positions are available for Chiefs who may work in a cafeteria setting or specialize in delicacies like Sushi Health and Recreation Directors who coach travelers what want to keep fit while on vacation an various types of Assistants who handle everything from greeting guests and processing paperwork to cordinating laundry pickup. Work is intense, but benefits are generous. Pay is good. addition, many people found they get more free time than they expected. One caution, though it is important for applicants not get seasick easily. Morover, you must be comfortable confined in small spaces—sometime without windows. Guests get the rooms directly on the ocean staff get inside offices and sleeping quarters. But here the good news A person who finds all this appealing can go everywhere from antartica to Greenland, with te most popular destinations being cities on the Mediterranean, the Behamas, Mexico, Austrailia, and central America.

Perhaps the Industry's new Motto should be "Get paid to travel!"